

A Land of Many Syllables

What to Do

- Look at the map of Canada below.
- Say the name of each province or territory and count the total number of syllables you hear.
- Complete the boxes above and below the map by writing the name of the province or territory in the correct one. British Columbia is done for you.

What You Need

- dry-erase marker
- pencil and paper

2 Syllables	3 Syllables	4 Syllables

5 Syllables	6 Syllables	7 Syllables
	British Columbia

Try It!

Say the name of the capital city of each province and territory. Which capital city has the most syllables? Which capital city has the least? Write your responses down and compare them with a partner.

Scrambled Syllables

What to Do

- Look at the sets of syllables below. Unscramble each set to make a real word.
- Write the unscrambled word on the line beside each set. The first one is done for you.

What You Need

- dry-erase marker
- pencil and paper

ta•tu•la•ran

tarantula

ex•i•per•tal•men

cy•clo•en•di•a•pe

sen•tive•in•si

pe•chem•tro•i•cal

spon•re•bil•i•si•ty

un•stand•der•ing•mis

light•de•ful

vi•ob•ly•ous

cip•i•pre•tion•ta

Try It!

Write your own scrambled syllable strips and see if a partner can unscramble them.

